Knee Multiple Ligament Injury (ACL, PCL & POSTERIOR CORNER RECONSTRUCTION)

Dr. Mark McCarthy
Chippewa Valley Orthopedics & Sports Medicine
1200 OakLeaf Way, Suite A 757 Lakeland Drive, Suite B

Patient
DOS

	POW 0-2	POW 2-6	POW 6-8	POW 8-12	POW 12-16	POW 16-20	POW 20+
Weight Bearing	TTWB - must use crutches		Advance 25% weekly until FWB by 8 weeks	Full weight bearing	•
Brace Settings	Locked at 0° for ambulation and sleeping	0-90° if sufficient quad strength, remove for sleeping	Discharge brace if no extension lag	D/C
PROM	0-45° Prone or sidelying, grasp heads of gastroc, maintain neutral pressure proximally to tibia while flexing knee	0-90° Advance slowly	Advance as tolerated
AROM	None Goal: 0°-90° Extens		sion only	Advance as tolerated	s tolerated
Exercises	Quad sets		Continue previous *within weight bearing	Continue previous	Continue previous	Continue previous	Continue previous
Protect	SLR in brace at 0°		restrictions	SL Heel Raises	Advance closed chain strengthening	Introduce	Advance reconstruction	Scar management		DL Heel Raises	SL Total Gym	Progress	plyometrics (limiting	sprinting, backward
Prevent anterior and/or posterior	Patellar mobilizations		DL Total Gym	Leg Press	proprioceptive activities	contacts)	running, cutting/pivoting, translation	Ankle Pumps		DL Squats	Step Ups/Downs	Stairmaster	Light agility drills	changing direction
Control swelling & inflammation	Modalities as needed		Hamstring Curls	Lateral Step Ups	Elliptical	*Refer to	Progress
Educate pt. on	Sidelying Hip Abd/Add in brace at 0°		Overball/Sportcord	SL Balance	ae	advanced ACL protocol	plyometric program & sport
rehab progression	Gentle Hamstring, Gastroc/Soleus stretching		DL Balance	Front Planks	program	proveder	specific drills
		^ o	Wall sits	Side Planks			POW 22-24
				Walking agility: March, Retro, Sidestepping			Complete FSA & gradual return to sports participation

<sup>**</sup>FSA (Functional Sports Assessment) not mandatory, but recommended.

Chippewa Falls, WI 54729

Altoona, WI 54720